

Water in the Wilderness

1. The Lord personally visited Isaac (Gen 26:1–5).
 - a. The patriarch benefited from his father's faithful obedience.
2. Isaac sinned like his father (Gen 26:6–11).
3. In the face of persecution and danger, the Lord continued to care for Isaac (Gen 26:12–22).
4. The Lord visited for the second time (Gen 26:24–25).
5. The legacy of Beersheba (Gen 26:26–33).
6. What is our own legacy of faith and where is our water in the wilderness?
